Decision on accreditation (3 appendices)

Decision

Swedish Board for Accreditation and Conformity Assessment (Swedac) changes after reassessment the decision 2014-07-09 in case 2017/170 such as for RTI Group AB (registration number 556230-2462) accredited as calibration laboratory with version updates of already accredited standard methods. The new scope of accreditation is specified by the marked changes in appendix 2.

The accreditation is valid until further notice. Swedac therefore discontinue the handling of this assessment case.

Applicable provisions

The provisions used in Swedacs accreditation process and which are applicable to activities are set out in appendix 1.

Swedac has reviewed the applied scope against relevant sections of SS-EN ISO/IEC 17025:2005. A new accreditation certificate against SS-EN ISO/IEC 17025: 2018 is issued only when the laboratory has undertaken a complete assessment against SS-EN ISO/IEC 17025:2018.

Appropriate provisions for decision 2018-03-09 in case 2017/1715 are set out in Annex 1 to that decision.

Reason for decision

RTI Group AB has applied for change of parts in the scope of accreditation. Swedac assess that the requirements are fulfilled for accreditation for the scope set out in the application and which was reviewed during the assessment.

Information

Application for changed scope must be made to Swedac.

Accredited laboratories pay an annual fee in accordance with Swedac's regulations.

The organisation carry out accredited activities at the following site/sites:
See appendix 2

This decision has been made by Division Manager Tomas Holm in consultation with the Technical Officer Johan Post.
